

Neighborhood Union Health Center

The Neighborhood Union Health Center is a multi-discipline one-stop-shop health center bringing together Fulton County Health and Human Services and the Morehouse School of Medicine.

FULTON COUNTY

186 Sunset Ave.,
NW
Atlanta, Georgia
30314
(404) 612-4665

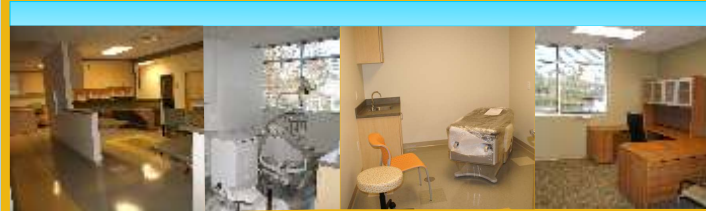

8:30 am-5:00 pm

Our Commitment to the Vine City Community

Neighborhood Union Health Center features a Community Room to host neighborhood activities.

New Facility New Equipment

The Neighborhood Union Health Center is where you come to take care of all of your health needs!

Your One-Stop-Shop For Overall Health Care!

- Children 1st and Child Health
- Communicable Disease Follow-Up
- Ear, Eye, Dental Screening
- Adult Dental Services
- Family Planning/Women's Health Services
- HIV Counseling and Testing
- Immunizations
- Lead Screening
- Newborn Metabolic Disease Screening
- Perinatal Case Management (PCM)
- Pregnancy Related Services
- Pregnancy Testing
- Right From The Start
- Medicaid Referrals
- Tuberculin Skin Testing
- Primary Care Services
- Nutrition, WIC Services
- Psychiatric Evaluation and Treatment
- Medication Management
- Mental Health and Substance Abuse Screening, Assessment, and Treatment Planning
- Individual, Group and Family Counseling
- Case Management Support Services
- Anger Management
- Coping Skills/Stress Management
- Parenting Skills
- Family Education Groups
- Co-Occurring Mental Health & Substance Abuse Groups

In addition, the Workforce Development component offers three (3) levels of Services:

1. Core Services – Self Directed Job Search
2. Intensives – Staff Assisted Employment Planning
3. Training – Enhance Current Skills/Skills Upgrade

These services are designed to assist all Fulton County residents, youth (16-21) and adults, as well as assist employers in developing and sustaining a world-class workforce to strengthen families and neighborhoods.

Workforce Development Services provided at the Center also include:

- Initial Needs Assessments
- Job Training
- Labor Market Information
- Career Guidance
- Occupational and Academic Assistance
- Subsidized Work Experience
- Resume Preparation
- Vocational Training
- Job Readiness
- Job Search Assistance
- Life Skills Training
- Occupational Skills Assessments

We have expanded our services and activities to the Neighborhood Union Health Center to better serve the community.

For more information, or to schedule an appointment, please contact the Neighborhood Union Health Center by calling (404) 612 - 4665.