Its' All About Community Action

Utility Assistance Approaches Expiration:

May 24th is Deadline

May is Community Action Month.

Vital Information You Need to Know

May 24th marks the ending of another year of emergency services to families in need of financial assistance with energy bills. Fulton Atlanta Community Action Authority (FACAA) has successfully aided over 19,000 households since November, 2009 but there is money left to help as many as 9,000 more. Funds are available through the Low Income Heating and Energy Assistance Program, also known as LIHEAP.

To avoid the return of these funds to the federal government, FACAA will extend its service hours from May 17 through May 24, 2010 by operating as follows:

- Monday through Friday from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.
- Saturday from 9:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

Applications will be taken at FACAA's Resource Center, which is located at 341 Kelly Street, SE, Atlanta, GA 30312. For income requirements and the necessary documentation that will be needed, please visit the website at www.facaa.org.
