

The Beaches of Agnes

Saturday, February 27 2010, 8:00pm - 10:00pm

The High Museum of Art

Rich Theater, 1280 Peachtree Street, N.E. Atlanta, GA 30309

$7 general admission, $6 students, seniors, and Museum members. Patron level members enter free.

The inspiring, 81-year-old Agnès Varda's most recent work, The Beaches of Agnès, is a film about memory, love, friendship, and art-making.

PIP & ZASTROW

Tuesday, February 09 2010, 7:00pm - 10:00pm

Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site Screening Room

450 Auburn Ave., NE Atlanta, GA 30312

FREE Screening

In 1948, Pip Moyer and Zastrow Simms were the top high school athletes in their segregated schools in Annapolis, Maryland, where blacks and whites lived side by side, but federal laws kept them from eating in the same restaurants, attending the same schools, even going to the same beaches.

Manga African Dance Inc.

P.O. Box 50662

Atlanta, Georgia 30302

Contact Person: Ramatu Afegbua-Sabbatt (404) 725-4260 cell

Community classes

Mondays from 6:30 - 8:45pm; Wednesdays from 5:30 - 6:40pm (children)

Grove Park Recreation Center

750 Francis Place NW, Atlanta, GA 30318-5016

(404) 799-2342

Dance performance for youth - Young Audiences performance

Monday, February 8, 2010

8.30 & 9.30 AM

Scott Elementary

1752 Hollywood Rd NW, Atlanta GA 30318

Southwest Arts Center Events

915 New Hope Road, Atlanta, GA 30331

404.613.3220 Contact person: Karinder Richardson-Williams

Dionne Farris: In Concert

Friday, February 12, 2009,

8 p.m.

Price: TBD,

Please contact Southwest Arts Center for updated information, 404-613-3220

Afro Brazil Live!!

February 13, 2010

8 p.m.

In celebration of the 2010 Carnival Season "Volta ao Brazil" a musical expedition to Brazil with Sander Pinheiro and Princess la Tremenda.

$15

Small Scale

February 19 – March 19, 2010

An exhibition of small scale art work no larger than 8.5-x-11

Opening Reception February 19, 2010 7-9pm

Show runs through March 19, 2010

Free and open to the public

Our Town

February 21 – March 21, 2010

Directed by Kenny Leon

Kenny Leon's True Colors Theatre Company presents this timeless classic of the American theater seen through new eyes in Kenny Leon's multi-cultural reinvention.

Preview performances February 21-26, 2010

Performances February 27- March 21, 2010

For ticket information please call 1.877.725.8849

cc: Gwendolyn Warren, Deputy County Manager
